

NETRON EN4

The NETRON EN4 by Obsidian Control Systems is a powerful Ethernet to DMX gateway with four RDM compatible ports

The unit shall be an Ethernet to DMX gateway with four RDM compatible ports. It shall offer presets for plug and play setups including 99 internal cues with fade and delay time. The unit shall support RDM, Artnet and sACN protocols. It shall offer (4) 5pin DMX/RDM optically isolated ports. The ports shall be bidirectional for DMX In and Output. An encoder with Push to Select / Exit Button shall be included. The unit shall be line voltage or POE powered with locking Power In/Thru and (2) locking RJ45 Ethernet network connections (1x POE) shall be included. The unit shall have a 1.8" OLED display with rotary knob and offer remote configuration via internal webpage. The unit shall offer flexible mounting options and be supplied with DIN rail spring brackets. The unit shall measure 215 x 139 x 42 mm and weigh 1 kg.